

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Baptist Ministers Fellowship of Greenville and Vicinity boasts a long and noble history of working to improve the quality of life for our residents; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Baptist Ministers Fellowship of Greenville and Vicinity are committed to upholding high values and a strong standard of Christian service, providing a beacon of inspiration, spiritual guidance, peace and goodwill throughout the community; and

WHEREAS, this year, the Baptist Ministers Fellowship recognizes and pays tribute to their president, Dr. John T. Berry, for his service and outstanding leadership in the community and the Palmetto State.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim June 2, 2005, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to recognize the Baptist Ministers Fellowship of Greenville and Vicinity and its president for their steadfast faith and commitment to Christian duty.
